JAP, TRYING TO SELL PEARLS, IS ARRESTED

Frank Kagari, a Japanese, who was trying to sell imitation pearls, was arrested last night by Chief Galusha and Capt. Pat O'Grady. He was charged with drunkenness and jailed. Kagari had seventeen of the pearls in a chainmail bag. A jeweler told Chief Galusha they were not genuine.

ARCHBISHOP WILL BLESS NEW CHURCH TOMORROW MORNING

Archbishop J. B. Pitaval of Santa Fe tomorrow morning will perform the imposing ceremony of blessing the new Catholic church of St. Ignace Loyola, which stands on the hill north of the highlands. The public is invited to be present. The ceremony will begin at 9:30 o'clock.

The new church, on account of its location and grounds, adds from its holy use, will be one of the beauty spots of Albuquerque. It is located on a high eminence overlooking the city and will be surrounded by trees, ponds and shrubbery. Rev. Father Joseph Altshuler is the pastor in charge.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Walter McFarland, 18 years old, died yesterday at his apartment on East Central Avenue. He came here from Tulsa, Okla., last May. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at C. T. French's chapel. The Rev. C. O. Beckman, pastor of the Lead Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

John Kenney, 35 years old, died yesterday at his apartment on North Fourth Street. He was a clerk in the postoffice. He came here fourteen years ago from Cardington, O. The body was taken to Strong Brothers' undertaking rooms. Funeral arrangements will not be made until his mother, who lives at Cardington, is heard from.

There will be a home cooking sale by the ladies of the Central Avenue M. E. church at Hugh Trotter's grocery store on Central Avenue 9:30 this morning.
